ENTERTAINS NEW YORK GUESTS

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Ryan and family of 1829 Arlington avenue, were Mr. Ryan's cousin, Philip Fay, daughter, Sarah, and son, John, of Amsterdam, New York; his nephew, Simon P. Myers, and a friend, Andrew Smelden, of Albany, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Roach, also of Albany, who attended the national convention of Spanish War Veterans held in Los Angeles recently. Mr. Roach is now state commander of the New York Spanish War Veterans, and national vice commander of the Eighth Army Corps Veterans, who served in the Philippines, China and Hawaii. Mr. Roach was Mr. Ryan's captain in command of New York troops during the Spanish-American war in Cuba.

EVANGELICAL GUILD MEETING
The Evangelical Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. E. M. Johnson, 1311 Engracia avenue, Wednesday, September 13, at 2 p. m. Mrs. John Ferguson will assist Mrs. Johnson as co-hostess.

CHEERIO CLUB PARTY
Mrs. Frank Thompson, 823 Cota avenue, will entertain members of the Pacific Electric Cheerio Club, their families and friends, with a party at her home Saturday evening, September 9. Mrs. Margaret Fitzgerald will assist. Pokeno and 500 will be played.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY HOLD JOINT INSTALLATION
Officers of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will be installed at the Legion hall Monday evening, September 11, at which time Percy Phoenix will take command of the Legion and Jean Patterson will wield the gavel of authority for the auxiliary.

SWIMMING PARTY
As a farewell party in honor of Glenn Tolson, who will shortly leave Torrance to make his home in Idaho, members of the Methodist Epworth League gave a swimming party at the Redondo plunge last Thursday evening. Returning from the plunge the group of 25 young people enjoyed refreshments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mowry, 2112 Carson street.

SPEND HOLIDAY AT FOREST HOME
Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bishop and sons, Cecil and Tommy, of 2021 Carson street, with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jones and children, Jack and Ruth, of 1830 Cedar avenue, spent the week-end and holiday at Forest Home.

New Music Teacher Opens Studio Here

Classes in piano and voice for pupils of all ages are being organized in Torrance under the direction of Mrs. Luit G. Cunningham, who has been a teacher in Southern California for the past 12 years. High school credits in piano and harmony will be given. Mrs. Cunningham, before coming to this state, had charge of the music department of the Southern Iowa Normal school. Her early training was received in this school and later she graduated from the Sherwood School of Music, of Chicago, which is the highest ranking school of its kind in the United States. She holds credentials granted by the state board of education of California and her work is given full credit by the federal government.

Those who are interested in taking up musical study under her direction may secure additional information by telephoning 77-M.
